Code of Conduct for Parents and Players

Douglas RFC wishes to provide the best possible environment for all young people involved in the sport. Young players deserve to be given enjoyable, safe sporting opportunities, free of abuse of any kind. These players have rights, which must be respected, and responsibilities which they must accept.

Young players are entitled to:

- Be treated with dignity and respect. --- Be safe and to feel safe. --- Get help against bullies. --- Say No.
- Be listened to. --- Be believed. --- Protect their own bodies. --- Refuse inappropriate touches.

Young players should always:

- Treat all coaches, managers, selectors, club and tournament organisers and officials with respect.
- Abide by the rules set down by team managers when travelling to away events.
- Behave in a manner that avoids bringing the game of Rugby into disrepute.

We confirm that we have received copies of the Code of Conduct for Players and Parents.

Insurance

Please note that the DRFC Club Insurance covers third party only in the event of accidents/injuries and not while playing. Club members can take out their own insurance to cover personal injuries, as they deem necessary (this cover is normally offered by schools at the beginning of the school year upon payment of a nominal fee).

In accordance with IRFU Rules, all players must have and wear a gum shield playing rugby at all times.

Data Protection

It is necessary for Douglas RFC ("the Club") to collect and record certain personal data relating to each member, including the member's name, address, telephone number and date of birth. The data about each member shall be provided to the IRFU, the relevant Branch and other third parties to facilitate any services provided relating to the Irish Rugby Football Union's Clubhouse Website (the "Website") and published on the Website. It is the IRFU that controls any data provided. The system will be used for management and administration purposes only. Any party receiving the information shall not use it for commercial purposes or release it to any party without prior approval.

The Club wishes to ensure that each of its members (for the purposes of applicable data protection legislation) explicitly and unambiguously consents to the processing of personal data by the Club in conjunction with its ordinary business. Therefore, the member's parent or guardian should confirm the following:

- The individual listed above (or his/her parent/guardian) has confirmed that he/she has read the Data Protection Statement and consents to the use of his/her personal details as set out in the IRFU/Club Youth/Adult Player Registration Form.

Each member has the right to request in writing a copy of any personal data about themselves which is held and have amended any personal data which is incorrect, incomplete or misleading.
